

Chris Digby appointed new CEO of Greythorn Australia

24 Feb 2006, Sydney

Chris Digby has accepted an internal promotion to become Greythorn's new Chief Executive Officer. The decision comes after a board meeting last night where the Directors of Greythorn Pty Ltd took the unanimous decision to offer him the post of CEO.

His six years tenure at Greythorn, Chris Digby has made an enormous contribution to the company. Over the last two years, Chris has been an integral part of setting the future directions for Greythorn in addition to taking daily responsibility for finance, sales and operations.

In a statement, Greythorn's Global Chairman Peter Mackley said - "In nearly 30 years we have been fortunate to have some quite outstanding people work at Greythorn, but Chris Digby stands out amongst them. Those of us who have been privileged to work with him will know his many remarkable attributes as a work mate and a boss. But it is his qualities as a human being, hidden under the most genuine modesty, which make him such a great person who is so well liked and respected by us all."

Career Trajectory within Greythorn

2000: Chris appointed the Chief Financial Officer

2001: Appointed Finance Director, completed his MBA

2002: Championed Greythorn's restructuring and new strategy in the midst of industry turmoil, guided Greythorn's Canberra office growth

2003: Appointed Director of Operations & Finance, first SARA award win

2004: Set the ground work for the Government Division, accepted the 2nd SARA Award

2005: Guided Australian operations to its highest revenue year, 3rd SARA win, appointed a Director of ITCRA

2006: Appointed the new CEO of Greythorn Australia

Press Release Contact

Phillip Tusing
Marketing Manager
+61 2 9249 8035